

C.V Dr. HASSAN AHMED HASSAN AHMED

Profile:

More than nineteen years' experience in teaching, training, and consultancy professions. As per teaching profession, I used to teach various management courses at different Sudanese universities at both undergraduate and postgraduate level. In addition to teaching and research supervision, I have been actively involved in curricula development for both postgraduate and undergraduate levels. As per training and consultancy profession, I have been actively involved in capacity building in different management domains. Overseas, I used to be a team leader for a one-year consultancy project for a private company in tourism industry (Mutiara Utaira Company). The project was part of my doctoral programme's requirements at Universiti Sains Malaysia.

Since September 2016, I have joined the Department of Management at Ahmed Bin Mohammed Military College and continue to teach various management subjects such as Principles of Management, Human Resource Management, International Business Management, Negotiation Management, and Crises Management.

Current areas of interest in teaching, research, training, and consultancy domains include: Human Capital Management, Organizational Transformation Management, Research Methodology, and Transformational Leadership.
